

My model of the pathophysiology of schizophrenia is shown in the graph abstract bellow. Currently, post mortan brains with schizophrenia and depression are investigated with Storm microscopy, a method that achieves resolutions below the optical diffraction limit (University of Applied Sciences, Linz, Austria). I also cooperate in brain research, especially in gliobiology with Dr. James Robertson (USA) and Prof. Alfredo Pereira (Brazil).

My home page: www.volitronics-institute.at

